CAPT. Mike Welch, DAAS
CAPT. John Sarisky, DAAS
Stephen R. Tackitt, DAAS
Dr. Herman Koren, DLASS
Keith Krinn, DAAS (Crumbine Jurist)
Dr. Sheila Davidson Pressley, DAAS (Deceased)
George Nakamura, DAAS (Crumbine Jurist – Deceased))

Committee Activity Report for 2021-2022:
The lack of a Wagner Award winner in 2021 and the passing of Dr. Sheila Davidson Pressley and George Nakamura impacted our committee membership this year. We are grateful to CAPT Mike Welch (retired), CAPT John Sarisky (retired), Stephen R. Tackitt, and Keith Krinn to volunteer as Awards Committee members this year to help us fill committee member vacancies. The committee approved the nomination of James J. Balsamo Jr., DLASS and Charles D. Treser, DAAS to the Diplomate Emeritus status for contributions to the Academy above and beyond the normal call of duty. The committee also approved the nomination of Stan Hazen, MPH, MBA, Senior Director, Scientific and Regulatory Affairs, with the NSF International as an Honorary Diplomate, for his accomplishments, support, and contributions to the Environmental and Public Health profession. The committee also selected CAPT. Charles S. Otto III, REHS, DAAS (retired) as the 2022 recipient of the Davis Calvin Wagner Award. Based on discussion within the committee on the criteria for Diplomate Emeritus and Honorary Diplomate, the committee recommends that the Board approve an ad hoc committee to review and update (if needed) the criteria for Diplomate Emeritus and Honorary Diplomate status.

Committee Report

Name of Committee: Constitution and Bylaws Committee

Committee Chair: James Dingman, DLAAS
Committee Members: Dr. Timothy Murphy, RS, PhD, DAAS - Tom Vyles DAAS - Katie Bante, DAAS – Mary O’Conner, DAAS – Dr. Adam London, DAAS – Eric Bradley, DLAAS

Committee Activities: The charge of the committee was to review the AAS Constitution and Bylaws (Adopted 2006) and AAS Proposed Constitution and Bylaws (Proposed 2016). And to seek input from the Board of Directors and general membership. The committee then used those documents and selected feedback to create a draft AAS Constitution and Bylaws for Board review. After several drafts, and reviews the documents were submitted to the Board for review/revisions. Upon approval of the Board the new AAS Constitution and Bylaws were submitted to the membership for a vote. The revised documents were approved by the membership in May 2022.

Requests for the Board: None

Report Date: June 22, 2022
Reported by: Dr. Tim Murphy
The NEHA/AAS Scholarship Committee has completed its work for 2022. Despite the many challenges we have all had during 2021 and 2022, the progress of the Committee moved forward. With the help of a new NEHA Liaison to the Committee, Heather Folker and the members of the Scholarship Committee, Bob Powitz, Keith Krinn, Robert Nelson, Harry Grenawitzke, Michele Samarya-Timm, Michele Dimaggio and Bob Washam, we were able to receive and review the qualified scholarship applications. Three longtime Scholarship Committee Members, Keith Johnson, Petrona Lee, and Marie Woodin resigned during the past year and a half. We were able to replace one of these members with Michele Dimaggio who did take part in this year’s evaluation process. We will be contacting one excellently qualified NEHA-AAS member who applied for the vacant position last year to determine if that person is still interested in filling one of those two remaining vacant positions, and we will be moving to acquire other qualified candidates NEHA-AAS members from which to fill those two vacant positions.

We received a total of seventeen applications for the undergraduate and graduate scholarships, however, some applications were found not to contain all of the essential and clearly stated elements required for a complete application. Other applications were not qualified for review and ranking because some students submitted applications that showed they would have graduated before the scholarships were even announced, even though it is clearly stated in the scholarship application information that applicants must have, at least, one or more semesters of school remaining to be eligible for these scholarships. This means that the scholarship money would not have been able to be applied to tuition and fees for which the funds must be used. Such applicants would have already graduated from their university. Despite these bumps in the road, we did secure an excellent group of qualified applicants from which to choose this year. After completing the initial screening process, we were able to review and rank two undergraduate and eight graduate applications.

The Committee in response to the wishes of both NEHA and AAS of the need for well-educated and well-prepared Environmental Health students committed to working as Sanitarians/Environmental Health professionals and contributing to the public health of communities, the application announcements and packets emphasized these points. The result of this emphasis yielded many outstanding applications from which the Committee could review and rank which made the work challenging but worthwhile. Below are the student scholarship winners for 2022.

Graduate Scholarship:

The graduate scholarship winner is Mindy Chambrelli, who is a member of NEHA, is enrolled in the Master’s in Public Health Program at the University of New England, where she maintained a 3.86 GPA (on 4.0 system) GPA and expects to graduate in May of 2023. She is presently employed by Darien Connecticut Health Department where she is currently the Acting Director of Health, and she holds A State of Connecticut RS Certification and also a REHS from NEHA. She is the 2020 President of the Connecticut Environmental Health Association (CTEHA) and received the 2020 “Sanitarian of the Year Award from CTEHA. Mindy has stated that she wants to focus on recruitment and branding of the environmental health profession along with highlighting the environmental health profession and informing the public about the protective role these professionals provide.

Undergraduate Scholarships:

The undergraduate scholarships were awarded to Haley Ritchie and Michell Leonard.

Haley Ritchie is an undergraduate student at the University of Findlay majoring in Environmental Health, Safety, and Sustainability and expects to graduate in May 2024. She has a 3.7 GPA on a 4.0 System. She has a passion for problem solving to help mitigate and/or eliminate hazards. Haley serves as Public Relation Officer for the Oiler Environmental Safety and Health Organization. She plans after graduation to concurrently pursue a career protecting the environment and the health of individuals in her community. Later she hopes to pursue a master’s degree in environmental policy and help shape the next generation of Environmental Health and Safety Professionals.

Michell Leonard is a Montana resident where she learned the value and importance of healthy waters resources. She is an undergraduate student at Montana state University, Bozeman majoring in their Accredited Environmental Health degree program where she has maintained a 3.72 GPA on a 4.0 System degree program. She stated that she realizes the beauty of nature and how it impacts people through food sources, transportation, and recreation but also has observed the negative impacts of pollution and erosion as well as the death of many fragile ecosystems. It has been said of Michell that she is the type of person who can actually solve problems on the fly and does not let things overwhelm her. She expects to graduate with a BS in Microbiology and Environmental Health in May 2023.

The NEHA-AAS Scholarship Program is being planned for great expansion as per the stated vision of Dr. David Dyjack and which has begun with the voluntary financial support of the NEHA Board and Officers as well as the NEHA Staff. There have been discussions about plans to expand outward to other environmentally based organizations and philanthropic organizations to support the NEHA- AAs Scholarship Program. I invite all of you to think how this can be accomplished so that we can offer more scholarships with increases in the size/amounts of the scholarship awards. Please just drop me a note explaining your ideas to expand our outreach program so we can support more environmental health students pursuing degrees from accredited universities with recognized programs in environmental health.

Lastly, I want to thank NEHA and AAS for their continued financial support of this student scholarship program and being equal partners in making it possible to support student education through this program.

Annual Executive Board Meeting 2022

Committee Report

Definition:

We are pleased to report that after two years deliberation, we finalized the new definition of sanitarian. This new definition was approved and accepted by Academy members. The old definition was adopted in 1978 and reaffirmed in 1992. Since then, the profession has realized dramatic changes resulting from advances in public health science, political, social and legal demands that expanded the scope of vocational opportunities beyond the regulatory role. It also dramatically altered approaches to environmental health applied sciences for health departments and their core of environmental health professionals.

I would like to thank all who participated, and particularly Chuck Treser for his insight and language refinement.

This new definition will lay the groundwork for two projects:

- Long Range Planning that was well-outlined by Dr. Welford Roberts and his committee in the "Strategic Plan Survey Report" dated May 5, 2020. The new definition is necessary for outreach to other professional associations so that we may increase our membership, broaden our knowledge base, and fulfill our original mission that included members of the APHA and IAFP; among others.
- Recognizing the many changes to our profession since the 1992 publication of "The Professional in Environmental Health", we will start reviewing these changes and updating the knowledge, skills and attributes (KSAs) of our profession, to reflect current and future trends in environmental health practice.

Following this meeting, we will start the planning process for these projects. We invite all Academy members in good standing to participate in these efforts. If you are willing to be part of Long Range Planning and/or the KSAs, please send an email to powitz@sanitarian.com. Thank you.

With warmest regards to all. Respectfully submitted,

Bob Powitz
