Diplomate Laureate Powitz discussed updating education and publication requirements for Diplomate and Diplomate Laureate. AAS should be targeting sanitarians in business/private sector as well as regulators. Chair Collins made the review of requirements for Diplomate and Diplomate Laureate an objective for Credentialing and Laureate committees.

Michele Samarya-Timm joined the meeting at 4:54 pm ET.

Strategic Planning – Powitz

Have been looking at the definition of “sanitarian”. The last “true” update of the definition was in 1978 and 1992. In 2000, sanitarian received professional recognition through the standard occupational classification. Committee developed the following proposed definition: A Sanitarian is a professional who can access and control environmental public health hazards present in the home or the human environment that can cause injury or illness. A Sanitarian also can advise on how to minimize and control human exposure to harmful conditions. Sanitarians are qualified to suggest alternative safe processes, methods and appropriate control mechanisms to manage environmental health risks. A Sanitarian uses scientific methods while defining the potential hazards, accessing risks, or evaluating exposures in the environment while finding suitable substitutes which are harmless or less harmful. Chair Collins asked if Dr. Oertner, Dr. Breeding, Dr. Vinci and Dr. Barnett would join the committee. Diplomate Laureate Powitz reported that NEHA had sent the advertisement for the Wagner Award that was used in November 2020 JEH. It does not look like any changes are needed and it will be okay to use it again this year. No applications for Wagner Award were received for this past year.

Constitution and By-laws – Dingman

The committee has completed its revision of the Constitution and By-Laws and it has been forwarded to Chair Collins for Board review. Once the Board has reviewed it, any suggestions or comments can be sent to the committee and those changes can be included. Chair Collins would like the Constitution and bylaws to be approved at the 2022 annual business meeting.
Communications & Marketing – Samarya-Timm

Committee will be issuing a press release to promote the Academy and noteworthy Diplomate recognitions. Have been exploring different ways the Academy can increase its exposure on virtual platforms. Any Diplomates that have the AAS tabletop stands to please return them Diplomate Samarya-Timm. Diplomate Laureate Powitz has one that he is using at the upcoming Yankee Conference. Committee is submitting an abstract to the 2022 AEC. AAS participated in a Twitter chat with NEHA for National Preparedness month. Forty visits to the AAS websites occurred during the Twitter chat. Committee recommends continuing to explore the different social media platforms. Committee is researching materials for the virtual exhibits. The committee ran analytics on the AAS website and within 60 days of the NEHA AEC there were no new visitors to the website.

VII. Open Discussion

Diplomate Samarya-Timm proposed adding “Environmental Health” to the title of the “American Academy of Sanitarians” as many practitioners are using EH. Chair Collins agreed to create an Ad Hoc committee with Diplomate Samarya-Timm as chair to develop a proposal to be brought to the Board and membership for consideration at the 2022 Business Meeting.

Diplomate Emeritus Gary Noonan reviewed the details regarding the four boxes of Diplomate applications detailed above. The applications going back to 2011 have been submitted digitally. Diplomate Emeritus Gary Noonan made a motion to shred the paper Diplomate applications and the motion was seconded by Diplomate Laureate Radke. Motion passed.

Chair Collins walked through the changes that have been recently made to the website. Diplomate Samarya-Timm recommended placing new information at top of front page of website instead of older pictures and using the website’s email capability for Board members. (Chair@sanitarians.org, Etc.).
